

HARVARD UNIVERSITY DEPARTMENT OF AFRICAN AND AFRICAN-AMERICAN STUDIES

AFRICAN VOICES FOR FREEDOM, CITIZENSHIP AND SOCIAL JUSTICE

AFRAMER 188Z

FRIDAYS
12PM-2PM

The course will be taught
by Dr. Bojana Coulibaly (AAAS) with the assistance of Christian Free, M.A.
(AAAS/Anthropology) as Remote-Support TF

FREEDOM, CITIZENSHIP AND SOCIAL JUSTICE IN AFRICA WILL BE THE PRIMARY FOCUS OF THIS COURSE AS WE EXPLORE ACTIVISM AND ARTIVISM THROUGH CITIZENSHIP AND SOCIOPOLITICAL STRUGGLE, HIPHOP, VERBAL AND VISUAL PERFORMANCE, SLAM POETRY, STREET ART, URBAN CULTURE, AND THE MEDIA.

WHAT WE WILL DO

We will build social and political portraits of activists and artists, using digital tools to collaboratively annotate and author/publish multimedia-rich content that explore expressions of community engagement, student protest, counterdiscourse/counterculture, political dissent, civil disobedience and political solidarity in Africa.

Canvas Site:
canvas.harvard.edu/courses/73937

For any questions, please email Dr. Coulibaly at bojana_coulibaly@fas.harvard.edu or Christian Free at free@g.harvard.edu

